

MESSAGE FOR EASTER 2022

Dear beloved ones,

After driving out the merchants from the temple in Jerusalem, Christ said, “Destroy this temple and I will rebuild it in three days.”⁽¹⁾ Bystanders were amazed because it had taken Solomon 46 years to build it. But Christ was referring to the true temple, the human body, which he would resurrect three days after his passing. Likewise, the Acts of the Apostles report: “The Lord of heaven and earth does not dwell in temples built by the hand of man.”⁽²⁾ And St. Paul explains: “Do you not know that you are the temple of God and that the spirit of God dwells in you?”⁽³⁾

Thousands of people make long journeys to visit the sanctuaries, forgetting that the real Sanctuary is their own body in which the divine spirit dwells. Thus, the human soul lies ignored inside the body, which, instead of being its temple, has become its tomb. The Masters of the spirit, the Emissaries of God on earth, come precisely with the task of resurrecting the human spirit to its true life.

With the guidance of the Master, the authentic Disciple learns to rise every day above the physical consciousness, opening the inner eye and ear to meditate on the Celestial Light and Harmony, and thus to realize the supreme good of existence: the knowledge of his own spirit and of the Divinity that is within him.

I therefore wish you all to celebrate the coming Easter in the most authentic way, rising from the illusory life of the senses to the true and sublime life of the spirit.

Loving and affectionate greetings,

Pier Franco Marcenaro

⁽¹⁾ John 2:19. ⁽²⁾ Acts 17:24. ⁽³⁾ 1 Corinthians 3:16.